

NEWS RELEASE

October 2006

HellermannTyton Data Ltd 'Wear it Pink'

The team at HellermannTyton Data in Northampton recently showed their true colours as part of the Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign 'Wear it Pink'.

A colourful array of outfits were worn by staff at HellermannTyton's Data Networking headquarters in Northampton, ranging from pink bunny ears to full blown designer creations in cerise. Each employee looking pretty in pink gave a donation to the Breast Cancer Campaign charity, raising a grand total of £165. The charity has so far raised a staggering £3.6 million nationwide to help continue researching the cure for breast cancer.

Picture shows HellermannTyton team looking pretty in pink